More donuts buying at the Orland Park Public Library. Bridget Bittman spent close to $100 there the other day, buying more sweet treats from the Orland Park Bakery. This is a lot less than they usually spend there, and this time the public was actually allowed to have some of these instead of it just being for staff or board members. But we still have a problem with how they go about getting these sweet treats. $96 could have bought a lot more goodies for everyone if they had...
