Five High Performing Charter Schools
Case Studies
and Analysis

What Makes Them Successful?

Paul Haubrich
Robert Kattman
William Kritek
Julie Kremer
Alfonzo Thurman

Final Report
Submitted
March 12, 2014

This report was prepared under a grant from the Suzanne and Richard Pieper Family Foundation, Ltd. in cooperation with the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee Foundation.

The research team members are solely responsible for the results of this study.
Table of Contents

Executive Summary ......................................................... Page 1
Methodology and Observations ........................................... Page 3
Five Selected Schools- A Brief Summary ............................... Page 5
General Observations ....................................................... Page 6

Major Findings-

Leadership ................................................................. Page 10
Mission and Values ....................................................... Page 14
High Expectations ......................................................... Page 19
  Academic Expectations ................................................ Page 19
  Behavior Expectations ............................................... Page 23
Building Community ..................................................... Page 28

Case Studies

Bruce Guadalupe Community School .................................... Page 32
  Assessment and Evaluation Data .................................. Page 44
Milwaukee College Preparatory School ............................... Page 73
  Assessment and Evaluation Data .................................. Page 83
Seeds of Health Elementary School .................................... Page 114
  Assessment and Evaluation Data .................................. Page 121
Woodlands Elementary School ......................................... Page 150
  Assessment and Evaluation Data .................................. Page 159
Young Leaders Academy .................................................. Page 188
  Assessment and Evaluation Data .................................. Page 195
Bibliography ..................................................................... Page 225