ARCHITECTURAL TREASURE HUNT
AT THE CORCORAN

ACROTERION  COFFERED DOME  ANTIFIXAE
EGG & DART  PANATHENAIC FRIEZE  CLAUSTRA
FRET  PSEUDOROSETTE
PEDIMENT  ATRIUM  ROSETTE
The fullest aspect of discovery . . . occurs when each separate piece of the museum is so rich that it has components nobody knew were there when it was first set out.

. . . . WHAT IF? . . . .

Frank Oppenheimer, Museum News
November/December 1982, p. 43
BIBLIOGRAPHY

Butler, Michael V. "What Are We Teaching?" Museum News. Vol. 46, no. 7 (March 1968) pp. 33-35.

