REFERENCES

Donovan, D. Cottage industries want new kind of 'home rule.' Chicago Daily Herald, January 5, 1985.

Duffy, F. Role and status in the office. Architectural Association Quarterly, 1969, 1(4), 4-14

Gluckin, N. The office is where the workers are. Telecommunication Products & Technology, June 1985, 60.

Hirshey, G. How women feel about working at home. Family Circle, 1985, 70, 72, 74.

Perry S. Part-time business turns lucrative. USA Today.

Small, L.L. How to get up in the morning and other tricks to working at home. Ms. , 1981, 10(2), 35-40.

Swartz, H. Telecommuting's expansion poses host of legal questions. Information Week, April 15, 1985, 38.

Telecommuters could top 7.2 million this year. Wall Street Journal, February 5, 1985, 1.

Thinning the managerial ranks. Office Administration and Automation, September 1983, 23.

Vicker, R. Computer terminals allow more people to work at home instead of commuting. Wall Street Journal, August 4, 1981.

Work-at-home deals are no deals for workers. Modern Office Technology, 1987, 32(5),