Complaints against library materials must be considered a most serious matter and will be processed in a very deliberate manner. Therefore, the following procedures are to be followed, step by step.

Step One: The material is discussed in person with the Librarian who reports this meeting to the Library Director. If satisfaction is not gained, continue with Step Two.

Date Completed: 2/23/09

Step Two: The Library Director arranges a conference to discuss this material with the complainant and the Librarian in an attempt to reach a mutual agreement. The questions listed in Step Three may be used as a guide for the discussion.

If agreement is reached, the report is signed, dated and forwarded to the President of the Library Board. It then becomes a matter of public record. It is the complainant's right to remain anonymous in terms of media reporting of the complaint.

Agreement Reached: Unresolved
