

10-3-2009

Hudson Library shares common bond of sexually explicit materials for minors with West Bend Library

Ginny Maziarka

Follow this and additional works at: https://dc.uwm.edu/west_bend_library_challenge

 Part of the Library and Information Science Commons

Recommended Citation

Maziarka, Ginny, "Hudson Library shares common bond of sexually explicit materials for minors with West Bend Library" (2009). West Bend Community Memorial Library (Wisconsin), 2009. 256.
https://dc.uwm.edu/west_bend_library_challenge/256

This Blog Post is brought to you for free and open access by UWM Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in West Bend Community Memorial Library (Wisconsin), 2009 by an authorized administrator of UWM Digital Commons. For more information, please contact open-access@uwm.edu.

Hudson Library shares common bond of sexually explicit materials for minors with West Bend Library

'Library' Article Hit Close to Home

By Meredith Berg

EDITOR, Wisconsin Christian News:

I was saddened to read the front page article last month, (WCN Volume 10, Issue 5), regarding the efforts of a few people in West Bend who had the courage to fight against the entrenched (and evil) American Library Association, which supports every kind of filth and vulgarity in our libraries. The story reminded me of the failure in my hometown of Hudson, several years ago, when we attempted to do the same thing, but failed.

.....

However, we had to file a “complaint” ahead of time in order to get on their agenda, and it was during this time that the local ACLU spokesperson and several of his left-leaning friends also “showed up” at the meeting.

.....

But the average parent has no idea of the kind of sick, perverted material available to our young children in our public libraries! The American Library Association is NOT a government entity and they have no legal power to do what they do, much like the ACLU. However, they use their scare tactics, blaring “censorship” all over the newspapers and most people just back down and they win another one!

We feel your pain, Meredith.