Contrary to what Ginny Maziarka stated on behalf of WBCFSL in theDaily News on Tuesday, May 5th, a request to rescind the library board appointment vote can still be made, and can be made by any member of the Common Council, not just those in the majority vote.

The reconsideration request would have had to come from one of the council members in the majority vote and would have had to been on the agenda for this last council meeting on Monday May 4th. A rescind motion can still be made and can be made by anyone on the council.

WBCFSL has threatened to move forward with the ethics complaint against Nick Dobberstein if the rescind request is on the agenda for the next Common Council meeting on May 18th. (I believe they may have also threatened to throw down their toys, leave the sandbox and have a temper tantrum if they don't get their way.)
