More Resources about the Library Controversy \(at the Library!\)

To help keep abreast (ahem) of the library controversy, the West Bend Memorial Library created a couple of helpful webpages:

- Resources page that includes links to related professional and civil liberties organizations, related websites and blogs (of all perspectives), and video clips from the June 2nd, 2009 Library Board Meeting.
- Publications page that provides PDFs and links to nearly every mention of the controversy (be they articles, opeds, or letters) in both local & national papers and news channels.

Thank you, library, for providing access to information without prejudice.
