

Sponsors: Buildings-Landscapes-Cultures, Department of Architecture, UWM; David and Julia Uihlein Charitable Foundation; School of Architecture and Urban Planning, UWM; Cultures and Communities Program, UWM; Department of History, UWM; Office of Undergraduate Research, UWM, Artists Working in Education Inc.; UWM Libraries; Amaranth Café; Heritage West Properties; Eat Cake!; Hmong American Friendship Association; Martin Drive Neighborhood Association; local residents and community leaders.

Monograph layout and design by Jared Schmitz.

Edited by Jared Schmitz.

All photographs by BLC field school students, unless otherwise mentioned.

Copyright BLC field school, 2015.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction 6

Places 12

- Change over time:
3710-3730 W Vliet Street 14
- Cha's House 16
- A Mixed-use Storefront 18
- Hawthorne House 20
- Jamie and NJ's House 22
- Mae's House 24
- HAFA 26
- Phyllis's House 28
- C&S Supermarket 30
- Goeliang's House 32

People 34

- Tymika Hawthorne 36
- Bobby McQuay Jr. 37
- Pat Mueller 38
- Ahmad Muhammad 39
- Martina Patterson 40
- Phyllis Reitter 41
- Ralsten Shanklin 42
- NJ Unaka 43
- Chia Vang 44
- Mae Vang 45
- Mychoua Vang 46
- ZongSae Vang 47
- Goeliang Yang 48
- Proctor Yang 49
- Tommy CheeMou Yang 50
- Yee Yang 51

Analysis 52

- Accessibility 54
- Hmong Food Landscapes 58
- Revitalization 62
- Transmitting Hmong Cultural Traditions
in Washington Park 64
- Reproducing Tradition 66
- Evolution of a Mixed-use Building 68

Appendix A1